TEXTILE WORKERS IN ARMS.

They Want Higher Wages at the Fall River Mills.
Fall River, Mass., Nov. 10.—Members of three of the textile operatives' unions will meet Wednesday night and formulate demands for a general increase in The carders, weavers and the wages. The carders, weavers a slasher tenders want more pay. The spinners' and loom fixers' unions have not joined in the movement.

The demands will be submitted first to the textile council, the central organization of the textile unions, for approval. Labor leaders declare that the aggregate dividend payment of about 36 textile corporations, $1,028,675 in the last quarter, indicates that the manufacturers are able to pay higher wages to the operatives.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation. SULZER TRIAL COST SOMETHING.

Large Item of Expense Was for Detectives-Plenty of Doorkeepers.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 10,-Bills for exenses incurred at the trial of impeachnt of former Governor Sulzer, not in cluding counsel fees, already total $50, 000 more than the $75,000 originally appropriated to conduct the trial. Vouchers filed with the state controller here show that $75,000 already has been expended and many unpaid bills remain. It is believed that a special bill for $50, 000 will be introduced in the Assembly this week to meet the extraordinary expenses. Thus far $46,153.12 has been oaid to senators and members of the ward of managers, and some money is still due them. The pay of employes was $8,395,70.

One of the largest single items of expense is for the salaries and expenses detectives. One New York agency head drew $8,954 for himself and employes. His salary was $25 a day. Members of the board of managers received $10 a day, including Saturdays and Sundays, from Aug. 30 to Oct. 10. The index clerk was paid $16.26 a day There were 28 doorkeepers, a chief door-keeper, a sergeast-at-arms, an assistant sergeant-at-arms, three janitors and three porters connected with the court.

LEPER IN BOARDING HOUSE.

Malden People Worried at Discovery-Victim Removed To Penikese.

Malden, Mass., Nov. 10.—Boarders at Malden house were worried Saturday then they learned that for three months prime number ones. a leper had been among them. Discovery came when Hyman Klein, aged 25. went to the Boston City hospital to obtain treatment for a skin disease. Physicians there found his affliction to be leprosy. He was placed in the detention hospital prior to being sent to the leper colony on Penikese Island. The boarding house was fumigated and its inmates examined. No one was found to have contracted the disease,

It was not thought at first that he was seriously hurt and he worked for some time after, and during the evening he sat up telling stories and joking with his companions. He became worse during the night, suffering severe pain in his spine, and failed rapidly until his death the following Friday. mother, 93 years old, is living. Hulett had been a woods foreman for several years.

Potatoes have not been as high in price for many years in the southern part of the state as this fall. The erop proved to be below the average. Many of the farmers were caught by the early frost on the morning of September 10 with their potatoes still green. The quality of all was very badly damaged, but those which had matured before that killing frost are of exceptionally good.

They are selling generally in maker.

ARGUMENTS BEING MADE.

In Case of Foster, Charged with Murdering Prouty.

Newfane, Nov. 10.-Two arguments were made Saturday in the case of Lou A. Foster of Halifax, charged with the murder of Ossie Elmer Prouty of that town on Oct. 16. The last witness was examined Saturday morning, a newspaperman, N. H. Arnold, who testified that Foster made certain statements to him n his cell in Brattleboro on the night of the shooting. One of them was that Prouty knocked him down and that Foster then shot him. He admitted that he did not publish all that Foster said and that not all of it was verbatim. He testified that Foster was in such a mental state that he made inquiry as to whether he was a drinking man. State's Attorney A. V. D. Piper made the argument for the state and J. C. Jones of Rutland for Foster. Lawyer Jones argued solely from the viewpoint of selfdefense, justifying Foster in his act because of the fact that he was on his own property and Prouty had assaulted him.
